The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ice 2004/0031767 in view of Pickles et al. 5697811.

Reference is first made to FIG. 1 in Ice wherein an exemplary embodiment of an electronic equipment enclosure is denoted generally at 100, and includes a chassis 100A, various front connectors 102, a power switch 104, indicators 106, and rear connectors 108 disposed on backplane 110 (see FIG. 4).

Directing attention now to FIGS. 2A and 2B, further aspects of an exemplary embodiment of single-wide functional module 200, such as may be employed in connection with embodiments of card cage system 400 (FIG. 4), are considered. Generally, single-wide functional module 200 includes a single-wide card 208, which comprises a printed circuit board ("PCB") in at least some embodiments, attached to the front panel 204. The single-wide card 208 includes a plurality of edges 208A that define the length and width of single-wide card 208.

In Pickles et al. In a preferred embodiment, as shown in FIG. 10, a backboard 64 is used to mount the brackets 1, 3 and cable holders 51 to a wall or equipment rack. The backboard 64 has supports 65 which are positionable against the wall or equipment rack and preferably define cutouts 66 which enable the backboard 64 to hang on protrusions from the equipment rack. The backboard defines a plurality of mounting holes 67 for attaching the brackets 1, 3 and cable holders 51.

To provide Ice with a backboard configuration as taught by Pickles would have been obvious for one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure and is cited on the PTO 892.

Applicant's remarks are considered moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
